White Center Community Development Association presents the 2009 White Center Community Summit

WHITE CENTER/SEATTLE, WA – The White Center Community Development Association (White Center CDA) invites White Center, its surrounding communities and supporters of White Center to the seventh annual Community Summit, to be held at Mt. View Elementary on Saturday, December 5 from 9:30am-4:00pm, free admission. Childcare is available.

The Summit aims to celebrate White Center while recognizing the community work and service that has shaped the area. Attendees will have access to numerous community organizations, partners and individuals who continue to make White Center a thriving neighborhood. Workshops, a resource fair and affinity groups will be available in several different languages. Food and cultural entertainment will reflect the diversity of White Center’s communities.

Attendees will also take part in an interactive electronic polling session to give feedback on their neighborhood, its environment and resources. The Neighborhood Plan, a book that contains a summary of community projects seeking to improve the lives of White Center residents, will be given to each attendee free of charge.

A free t-shirt that says “I ♥ White Center” will also be given to attendees after the completion of the Community Summit evaluation form.

The Summit is sponsored by Boeing Employees Credit Union, Census 2010 and White Center CDA. A comprehensive list of community partners can be found on the Summit flyer.
