

ACT Summer Workshops for Educators

In a time of growing demands on teachers, ACT is pleased to offer two workshops led by educator Bill Morrison that help teachers tap into the power of theatre to reach and teach the youth of today.

WORKSHOP 1

Theatre as a Springboard: A Cross Curricular Approach

Educators explore how to use dramatic elements to enhance student engagement in current curricula.

Each participant will receive as part of the registration price:

- The opportunity to gain 14 clock hours.
- Materials to use in the classroom.
- References and resources or further study.
- A boxed lunch for each session.

This class is offered twice.

Section One: June 29 and 30, 2009 from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Section Two: August 25 and 27, 2009 from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Cost: $200.00

Maximum Enrollment: 15 per section

WORKSHOP 2

Using Acting Techniques to Enhance Classroom Management

Educators will explore acting and performance techniques that help capture and hold the attention of students.

Each participant will receive as part of the registration price:

- The opportunity to gain 21 clock hours.
- Materials to use in the classroom.
- References and resources for further study.
- Specific feedback on personal management techniques.
- A boxed lunch for each session.

This class is offered twice.

Section One: June 24, 25, 26, 2009 from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Section Two: August 24, 26, and 28 from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Cost: $300.00

Maximum Enrollment: 12 per section

To register and for more information, contact Kristina Sutherland, education associate at (206) 292-7660 ext. 1338. Deadline to register June 15, 2009 & August 10, 2009.

Instructor Bill Morrison has led workshops and trainings for teachers in classroom management and education strategy since 2003.