

Grading Policy

Curriculum in career and technical education programs is competency based. You will be expected to demonstrate mastery according to industry standards. Your instructor will explain specific program grading policy and course requirements.